

July 9 2018

Career Guidance and Future Prospects in Computer Science

A Guest lecture on “Career Guidance and Future Prospects in Computer Science” was organized by the Department of Computer Science, on 9th July 2018. The lecture was organized for Final Year students of Computer Science. Mr. V. G. Shanmugam, Founder & CEO, Shan Software Services, Chennai where the resource person for the day.

The session was held with the intent of enlightening the students about their career opportunities and future prospects. He addressed about his career and growth also he took efforts to achieve success in life.

He enlightened and guided the students in various career aspects through which the students can aspire and initiate their career. A brief idea was given about the various prospects of career for students in both government and IT sectors

The presentation and interaction of the speaker were very effective, wherein he showed many related visuals and live presentation using various websites including their own personal websites and also spoke about various famous greatest personalities and their world famous fortune. The students interacted enthusiastically and the resource person answered their queries and cleared their doubts.

The session was enriching, enthralling and energizing. The session came to an end with the vote of thanks given by Ms.A.Revathi (HOD), Computer science department.

The students were filled with a sense of pride and knowledge on how to achieve their career. They gained a clear view on employment opportunities, especially in computer science in Government and IT Sectors.